THE CASTLE
1944

Dear Pat,

always remember the wonderful times mine had playing basketball. I shall always remember you and all the other kids that have made my "junior" year a happy one -

a Pal always,
"Dot Link"

Hello Pat. It's been nice playing basketball with you. The best of luck to a swell gal.

Edwina Buck"

Dear "Pat" -
It has been fine knowing you. Remember the nice times we have had at the community house. Keep up your fine work at school. You are a fine guard in basketball. Hope we play next year.

A Pal
Lolie

To the most famorous girl I ever roomed next to -

Love,

Dot

FINCASTLE, VIRGINIA

The Castle 1944

Fincastle, the oldest English-speaking town west of the Blue Ridge Mountains was named for Lord Fincastle, eldest son of John Murray, Earl of Dunmore and Viscount Fincastle, who was Governor of Virginia in the late 18th century. This settlement had been called Botetourt Court House but was changed to Fincastle in 1771. Botetourt County is rich in tradition and history. The hills of our county gave iron to help fit the Confederate ships in their great struggle for what they thought to be right. Though these same hills have been fortunate in not being the locale for fighting they have contributed much in the way of men and materiel for our major wars. Loyal patriots gave much to the Revolution; several volunteer companies went from this community to fight with the Confederate army. The Spanish-American war and the first World War had men from our county and now that we are engaged in another war for freedom, Fincastle has again answered the call of its Government in giving its sons. To those boys we pause to pay tribute for we know that they will honor and revere the name and spirit of Fincastle—as did the pioneers who named it. For this historical town our school and publication were named.

FOREWORD

To you, the students of Fincastle High School, we, the staff members, present this 1944 CASTLE with the hope that it will bring back memories in the years to come.

Best luck to you Patty. I've enjoyed having you in my classes -

ABANDONED JEWELS

We, the Senior Class of 1944, being sound of body (from the result of so much Physical Training) and mentally morons, do hereby will and bequeath to those named, our "Abandoned Jewels":

To the School and Faculty, we leave a Senior Class of '45 almost as brilliant as the Class of '44.

To Carroll Ashworth, we, the Senior Civics class, leave priorities on the library Roanoke Times so that he can keep up with "Terry and the Pirates."

To Fred Naff, I, Bill Austin, do leave my neat and calm ways.

To the "Troutville Visitors," we, Elsie Boothe and Georgia Carroll, do leave our art of skipping class without being caught.

To Cromer Hedrick, I, Cova Dalton, do leave my "baseball swing."

To Irene Simmons, I, Joyce Dillon, do leave my last-period rendezvous with Freddy Wertz.

To Frances Robinson, I, Virginia Clarkson, do leave my consistency in getting "straight A's."

To Ben Bullard, I, Rodney Bush, do leave my shyness.

To Eddy Clarkson, I, Billy Custer, do leave my seat on the Catawba bus beside Maggie.

To some other authority on love, I, Betsy Keith, do leave my "Aunt Lizzie Column."

To Frances Arnold, I, Eileen Peck, do leave my "Junior Pests."

To Joe Carey, I, Aurich, Jr., do leave my careful driving ability.

To Phyllis Austin, I, Mary Lou Reynolds, do leave my ability to hold one man.

To Edwina Stevens and Dorothy Crouch, we, Juanita Rieley and Mary Willie Thomas, do leave our golden friendship.

To Rebecca Crowder and Cromer Hedrick, I, "Noonie" Dodd, do leave my meeting place in the alcove.

To Howard Caldwell, I, Eugene Berry, do leave my art of making good grades without coming but once a month.

To Bobby Melson, I, Della Mae Trent, do leave an empty pop bottle to use as a club in his battles with Patty Lee.

To Dennis Epperly, I, Jack Cassell, do leave my late hours (8:00 P. M.).

To anyone who would like to have them, I, Diana Smith, do leave my little feet.

To Reba Sprinkle, I, Dingle Reedy, do leave my "taxi" to transport the gang around in.

To Geraldine Edwards, I, Juanita Otey, do leave my "kitchen charms."

To "Piggy" Tucker, I, Vivian Wyne, do leave my last-minute run to the bus.

To Ruth Wright, I, Charlotte Epperly, do leave my art of making "goo-goo" eyes.

To my brother Truman, I, Robert Plasters, do leave my milk route.

To Irene Caldwell, I, Betsy Stoner, do leave my letters from the Navy and the Marine Corps.

To all future Senior Classes, we, the Class of '44, do leave our sincere wish that they will have a sponsor as understanding as ours.

Motto: "Forward March with Music"

Our objectives for this year's work in music are:

1. To learn the notes, time, etc.
2. The study of symphony orchestra.
3. To learn to appreciate good music.

The first program sponsored was a Christmas cantata, "Chimes of Bethlehem."

Mrs. H. M. Painter instructs our class in an informal manner. We enjoy the fellowship and friendship in learning good music.

THE GREMLIN GAZETTE

The Seniors of 1944 showed their ability for originality by starting a new school paper—The Gremlin Gazette. Names for the paper were submitted by the high school and grade children. The name chosen was suggested by Mary Willie Thomas, a senior. The paper is published about every three weeks and copies are sent to our graduates in the service. We have many interesting things, including the "Aunt Lizzie" column, school facts, gossip, jokes and editorials. Our paper so far has proved successful.

ENRICHED

METROPOLITAN

FLOUR

She will tell you that METROPOLITAN makes biscuits and rolls so much lighter and whiter, of finer texture, and finer taste than biscuits and rolls made with other flours.

AND WE'LL
TELL YOU THIS ABOUT IT!

METROPOLITAN IS A "SUCCESS-INSURED" FLOUR

It is made only from the top crop of the Golden Wheat carefully selected and scientifically milled. And finally, every batch of METROPOLITAN is kitchen tested in our own Model Laboratory. That's why it is sold under a money-back guarantee.

Hello Pat -
you know the mood I'm in right now - and where we've just been. Always remember those nites - and Sunday afternoons - when you - Harold, Mary Ellen and Woodie, and me - and Buddy! - the fun we've had; the Pontiac, the '36' Dodge, the one-seated car, the "Bear Wagon" - and - everything else. Here I am sitting on the ground, with a cold; (is a cold all I can sit with???)

Gotta go now!

My Dearest Patty,

Honey, I love you good! Gosh, am I going to miss sleeping with you, and wearing your blue dress next year! Take good care of the five! Don't forget me Baby and all the nice things I have done for you? and Harold! Don't forget our Sunday hikes, Ed. Brooks, and all our good times we have had together! (with our many boy friends of course!) Stay as sweet as you are Baby and you can have all the Boys (what boys) you want! No Kidding!! Don't lose your appetite. Take "Ze Nite"!" What are you Doing Tonite? Going out and Buy a Corona" "you look like you have a Hot Potato in your mouth - Boy" "I love my Husband" "but Oh - you - Girl" "I'm just 3½ years old"!!! Best Love,
